

Brian Walters SC

What Hope Can We Believe In?

The Future of the Political Green Movement in Australia

Thursday 13th of May

1pm Agora Cinema

Brian Walters is a prominent Melbourne Barrister who has been involved in a number of human rights and environmental cases and campaigns. A founding member of the Greens Party in Victoria, he is standing as the Greens candidate for the state seat of Melbourne in the upcoming 2010 Victorian state election.

A captivating public speaker, he is coming to La Trobe to talk about the up and coming 2010 election and the future of the political green movement in Australia.

THE GREENS.

esp community